Offending History

Have you had any criminal convictions? Yes/ No

Are you currently involved in a police investigation? Yes/ No

If the answer to either of these questions is 'Yes', please give details in a separate letter addressed to the Volunteer and People Development Coordinator and marked Private and Confidential. Any information given will be treated in strictest confidence and in accordance with our Privacy Statement. An answer of 'yes' does not necessarily preclude being a volunteer; all cases are dealt with on an individual basis.

Do you agree to disclose any subsequent change in circumstances to Bethany? Yes/ No

Some Volunteer Roles at Bethany are subject to a Disclosure check. We also regularly review our disclosures. Do you have any objection to either of these points? Yes/ No

I agree to the information collected on this form to be used to process my application to volunteer with Bethany Christian Trust, and then for my induction, support and exit management if I become a Bethany Volunteer. I understand that Bethany Christian Trust will not disclose any information about me to any other company, unless required to do so by law.

I understand that once I am no longer volunteering with Bethany Christian Trust, my data will be securely retained for 3 years and 3 months if I am an adult and indefinitely if I am under the age of 18 when I start volunteering. Anonymised data from this form may continue to be used for analysis of the Bethany Christian Trust recruitment process after this point.

I understand that I have the right to request to access, correct, sometimes delete and restrict the personal information Bethany Christian Trust uses. I also have a right to complain to Bethany Christian Trust and to the data protection regulator.
